

Election Complaints

36. Complaints about the conduct of GU Elections, election counts or results, decisions of the Returning Officer or Elections Committee, and any similar issues should be made through procedures laid down in Schedule E [note under schedule E, elections can be delegated to another body such as CUSU – this will usually be dealt with under CUSU/ University regulations, unless these organisations have broken their own rules] and escalated to the Trustees if necessary.

37. Complaints about the personal or professional behaviour of members of the Elections Committee should be directed through the process for Complaints about Elected Officers.

38. Complaints about the conduct of GU members in regards to GU Elections that are beyond the scope of the Elections Committee should be passed to the GU President ( president@gradunion.cam.ac.uk ). and dealt with under the provisions of Complaints about students at GU functions.
